Stock Traders Daily

From broader macroeconomic observations to immediately actionable investment opportunities, Stock Traders Daily provides news and analysis of the U.S. stock market, NASDAQ, S&P 500, Dow Jones Industrial Average, and Russell 2000, in addition to offering 1300 real time trading reports on the top stocks on those markets on a daily basis. Our proprietary macroeconomic work is called The Investment Rate, which has been touted as being one of the most accurate leading longer term stock market and economic indicators ever developed, and it measures the natural rate of change in the demand for assets in the United States dating back to 1900 and extending out beyond 2030. The Investment Rate is the foundation behind our analysis, but the level of interest rates and the stimulus policy enacted by the Federal Reserve play a key role as well. Although our news is often company specific, often related to sectors and ETFs as well, and often related to both oil and OPEC too because actionable news is more important to individual investors, we must never lose sight of the bigger picture. By understanding the environment that exists, we can take advantage of the opportunities it offers.

The Fly is your filter to the often complex world of stock news.

The Motley Fool

The Motley Fool's purpose is to make the world smarter, happier, and richer. While other companies may focus on one or two of these, we aim to do all three by providing outstanding business and investing advice – with a decidedly Foolish bent. Our name is in homage to the one character in Shakespearean literature – the court jester – who could speak the truth to the king and queen without having his or her head lopped off. The Fools of yore entertained the court with humor that instructed as it amused. More importantly, the Fool was never afraid to question conventional wisdom. We believe in treating every dollar as an investment in the future you want to create. We believe that investing in great businesses, for the long term, is the most effective path to wealth. We believe in the power of a community to learn and grow together. We believe in keeping score and being transparent in our investment performance. We strive to fulfill our purpose by truly serving every Fool, from our employees to our members to our community.
